2023 Serious Incident Declaration Form

Safeguarding Excellence: Safety is our Top Priority

Form 05A

THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH'S INTERNATIONAL AWARD
MALTA

This Serious Incident Declaration Form is a mandatory document for all Award Centres and Operating Partners.

It serves to confirm that all centres adhere to the safety standards and incident reporting policies established by the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award – Malta Foundation.

This declaration serves as a formal report, affirming the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Centre's commitment to safety and adherence to prescribed guidelines. The submission of this document is pivotal in upholding the centre's accreditation and in fostering an environment of trust and security. It is a declaration of the centre's diligence in maintaining a protective setting for participants, staff, and volunteers throughout the year.

Declaration

I, the undersigned, acting as the designated representative for the above-mentioned Duke of Edinburgh's Award Centre, hereby declare the following:

No Serious Incidents: To the best of my knowledge and belief, no serious incidents occurred at our centre during the calendar year 2023. A serious incident is defined as any event that could have or did result in harm to participants, staff, volunteers, or the reputation of the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award.

Compliance and Reporting: This declaration is made in compliance with the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award – Malta Foundation policies and procedures concerning safety and incident reporting. I understand that this declaration is a requirement for maintaining the accreditation and good standing of our centre.

Accuracy of Information: I acknowledge that providing false or misleading information in this declaration can lead to serious consequences, including disciplinary actions or revocation of accreditation.
